

Name _____

Date _____

Compare Two Characters

Listen to both stories. For each question, circle one character or both.

READ ALOUD Hen Goes to Market

Hen took her basket and walked to the market. She bought three red apples.

On the way home, rain began to fall. Hen did not like to get wet, so she hid under a big leaf until the rain stopped.

READ ALOUD Duck Goes to Market

Duck took his basket and walked to the market too. He bought a loaf of bread.

On the way home, rain began to fall. Duck loved the rain! He splashed in every puddle all the way home.

Who went to the market?

Hen

Duck

both

Who bought apples?

Hen

Duck

both

Who bought bread?

Hen

Duck

both

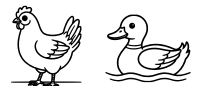

Who hid from the rain?

Hen

Duck

both

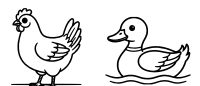

Who splashed in the puddles?

Hen

Duck

both

Compare Two Characters

The answers are in dark boxes.

READ ALOUD Hen Goes to Market

Hen took her basket and walked to the market. She bought three red apples.

On the way home, rain began to fall. Hen did not like to get wet, so she hid under a big leaf until the rain stopped.

READ ALOUD Duck Goes to Market

Duck took his basket and walked to the market too. He bought a loaf of bread.

On the way home, rain began to fall. Duck loved the rain! He splashed in every puddle all the way home.

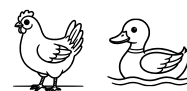

Who went to the market?

Hen

Duck

both

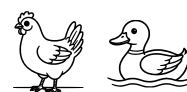

Who bought apples?

Hen

Duck

both

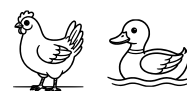

Who bought bread?

Hen

Duck

both

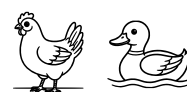

Who hid from the rain?

Hen

Duck

both

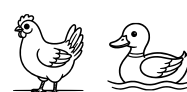

Who splashed in the puddles?

Hen

Duck

both