The -ed Word Family

Read the words. Trace and write them. Then make your own -ed words.

1 Read the words. Each one ends in ed.

bed red fed led wed

2 Trace each word. Then write it.

Tracing practice lines for the words "bed", "red", and "fed". Each word is shown in a dotted format on a three-line grid (top, middle dashed, bottom) for tracing. There are three rows of handwriting lines, each containing a dotted word followed by two empty spaces for independent writing practice.

3 Make -ed words. Write a letter in each box. Read your word.

Try these letters:

f	l	b	w	r
---	---	---	---	---

Tracing practice lines for the "-ed" suffix. The first row shows three dotted "-ed" suffixes on handwriting lines, each preceded by an empty box for a letter. The second row shows three more dotted "-ed" suffixes on handwriting lines, each preceded by an empty box for a letter.
