

Name _____

Date _____

Write with FANBOYS

Write a sentence that joins two sentences with each conjunction.

- ① and: Tell two things you do in the morning.

- ② but: Tell something you like and something you do not like.

- ③ or: Give a choice for what to do after school.

- ④ so: Tell what you did because of the weather.

- ⑤ for: Tell why someone did something.

- ⑥ yet: Tell about something surprising.

- ⑦ nor: Tell two things a pet or person does not do.

Write with FANBOYS

Write a sentence that joins two sentences with each conjunction.

- ① and: Tell two things you do in the morning.

I brush my teeth, and I eat breakfast.

- ② but: Tell something you like and something you do not like.

I like carrots, but I do not like peas.

- ③ or: Give a choice for what to do after school.

We can play soccer, or we can ride bikes.

- ④ so: Tell what you did because of the weather.

It was cold, so I wore my hat.

- ⑤ for: Tell why someone did something.

Dad took an umbrella, for it looked like rain.

- ⑥ yet: Tell about something surprising.

The test was long, yet I finished early.

- ⑦ nor: Tell two things a pet or person does not do.

My cat does not swim, nor does she fetch.