Trace Uppercase G

Start at the big dot and follow the arrows. Trace each G, then write your own.

How to write G:
