

Name _____

Date _____

Big Bear Bakes a Cake

A grown-up reads the text aloud, then reads each question. Circle or draw the answer.

READ ALOUD

Big Bear wanted to bake a cake for Little Bear's birthday. First, he got out his biggest bowl.

He cracked in two eggs. He poured in flour and milk. Then he stirred and stirred until his arm was tired.

Big Bear put the cake in the oven and sat down to wait. He waited, and waited, and fell fast asleep!

Sniff, sniff. Something smelled sweet. Little Bear tapped his nose. "Wake up! The cake is ready!" The two bears shared the warm cake, and it was the best one ever.

1 Who made the cake?

2 What did Big Bear put in the bowl?

3 Did Big Bear fall asleep?

yes

no

4 What happened at the end? Draw it.

Big Bear Bakes a Cake

A grown-up reads the text aloud, then reads each question. Circle or draw the answer.

READ ALOUD

Big Bear wanted to bake a cake for Little Bear's birthday. First, he got out his biggest bowl.

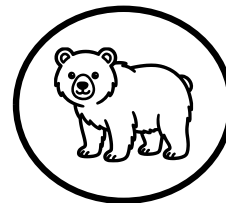

He cracked in two eggs. He poured in flour and milk. Then he stirred and stirred until his arm was tired.

Big Bear put the cake in the oven and sat down to wait. He waited, and waited, and fell fast asleep!

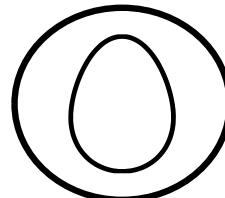

Sniff, sniff. Something smelled sweet. Little Bear tapped his nose. "Wake up! The cake is ready!" The two bears shared the warm cake, and it was the best one ever.

1 Who made the cake?

2 What did Big Bear put in the bowl?

3 Did Big Bear fall asleep?

4 What happened at the end? Draw it.

Drawings will vary. Look for the two bears eating or sharing the cake.