

Name _____

Date _____

Pip and the Big Rain

A grown-up reads the text aloud, then reads each question. Circle or draw the answer.

READ ALOUD

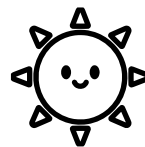

Pip was a little snail who lived in a garden. One morning, dark clouds rolled across the sky, and big drops of rain began to fall. Pip's friend Fern the frog hopped by. "Come with me to the pond!" said Fern. But snails are slow, and the pond was far away. So Pip crawled under a wide green leaf and waited. Plip, plop, plip! The rain tapped on the leaf, but Pip stayed dry. When the sun came out, Fern hopped back. "Where were you?" she asked. Pip smiled. "I had my own little umbrella!"

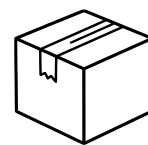

1 Who is the story about?

2 What was the weather at the start of the story?

3 What did Pip hide under?

4 Did Pip get wet?

yes

no

Pip and the Big Rain

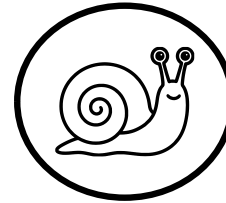

A grown-up reads the text aloud, then reads each question. Circle or draw the answer.

READ ALOUD

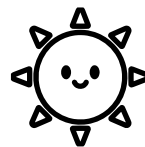

Pip was a little snail who lived in a garden. One morning, dark clouds rolled across the sky, and big drops of rain began to fall. Pip's friend Fern the frog hopped by. "Come with me to the pond!" said Fern. But snails are slow, and the pond was far away. So Pip crawled under a wide green leaf and waited. Plip, plop, plip! The rain tapped on the leaf, but Pip stayed dry. When the sun came out, Fern hopped back. "Where were you?" she asked. Pip smiled. "I had my own little umbrella!"

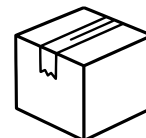

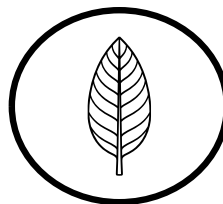

1 Who is the story about?

2 What was the weather at the start of the story?

3 What did Pip hide under?

4 Did Pip get wet?

